

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

An Excellent Card and Some of the Best Winter Stock Entered.

King Crab, Blitzen and Burlington
Will Meet in a Mile Race.

The card at Guttenberg to-day is the reverse of that run off yesterday. Then there was but little quality and a great deal of quantity. To-day the cracks meet, and the racing should be well worth a visit to the track. The mile race should be the best of the day. King Crab is accorded top weight, conceding one pound to Blitzen, 5 to Burlington, 16 to Jester, and 20 to Glenelch.

The interest will centre in Burlington, Blitzen and King Crab, and they should finish close together. Early Blossom, Greenwich and Mohican ought to make a good race at six and a half furlongs. A good crowd of spectators are entered in the four and a half furlong dash also. The track will be heavy and deep. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race.—Purse $100; betting allowances, six furlongs.

W. H. Hanson's Bowery..... 125

J. H. Lewis' Tattler..... 125

E. W. Johnson's Cascade..... 125

G. E. Cotten's Jerome..... 125

J. D. Deasey's Methuselah..... 125

E. Stewart's Thanks..... 125

J. H. Lewis' Tattler, Jr..... 125

J. Wilson's Annie W..... 125

Adalgisa colt has been running fair races, and she may win. Bowery may get second place, and the others will take the third.

Second Race.—Purse $400; betting allowances, six and a half furlongs.

J. D. Deasey's Greenwich..... 125

G. W. Stewart's Bowery Stable..... 125

C. L. Parker's Mohican..... 125

The finding this race looks to lie between Early Blossom and Greenwich, and the writer would like to see them finish as named. Mohican ought to be third.

Third Race.—Purse $240; for two-year-olds, betting allowances, five and a half furlongs.

G. W. Stewart's Bowery..... 100

A. Thompson's Carrie..... 100

E. E. Deasey's Rocket..... 100

J. H. Lewis' Tattler..... 100

G. E. Cotten's Hebe..... 100

B. Deasey's Love Hill..... 95

F. Parker's Happy Mill..... 95

Faise Ahrens should have no trouble in winning this race, and Helen should get the place as easily. Miss Hess ought to beat the others.

Fourth Race.—Purse $500; betting allowances, one mile.

G. W. Stewart's King Crab..... 125

B. Deasey's Burlington..... 125

C. L. Parker's Jersey..... 125

J. D. Deasey's Jester..... 125

Blitzen looks invincible in this race. The distance is his favor, and he is not badly off in weight. Burlington should beat King Crab for the place.

Fifth Race.—Purse $400; betting allowances, four and a half furlongs.

J. D. Deasey's Greenwich..... 125

W. E. Cotten's Gladstar..... 100

J. H. Lewis' Tattler..... 100

G. E. Cotten's Hebe..... 100

J. D. Deasey's Pan-Dancer..... 100

C. L. Parker's Mohican..... 100

Sommerville's Starling and Digger..... 100

B. Deasey's Burlington..... 100

B. Deasey's Bird, second and Jasso not won three.

CAMMEYER'S HOLIDAY DISPLAY.

Footwear of Every Style and Description Shown.

The show-windows of A. J. Cammeyer's big shoe store, at Sixth Avenue and Twenty-third street, make one of the most attractive holiday displays in town. Footwear of every style and description is shown in the greatest variety, and the goods are most tasteful and artistically arranged that every passer-by is sure to look at the display.

The window set apart for women and children's footwear is especially noticeable. Besides all the latest and daintiest shapes in kid, goat-skin, patterned leather, etc., there is a large assortment of ravishing little slippers in the most delicate shades of silk and satin. The latest sandals and Oxford shoes, and all articles of leather, including the rainbow tints are beautifully contrasted.

There is also an equally enticing display of gowns and wraps, and another window, which includes all the fast fashions in patterned dress and street wear, as well as a variegated assortment of slippers in soft, antelope, and other materials.
